

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in The Dispatch.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

JOB PRINTING DONE

At The Mahoning Dispatch office, not while you wait, but promptly and in a manner that will please you. Prices are consistent with service rendered. A trial order is solicited. Please place it now.

VOL. XLII. NO. 23.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1918.

$1.50 A YEAR

MILLVILLE

Sept. 12—The Home Circle Club met Wednesday at the home of Miss Lucy Alverson. Knitting and a social time was enjoyed. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. D. Arner the second Thursday in October.

Mrs. Margaret Morton and Elesta Baker of Prossburg, Md. visited at C. D. Arner's Wednesday evening. Miss Baker was the efficient and successful teacher in the local school last year and many people regret to learn she will not teach here this year as she has accepted a position as primary teacher near Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Oesch and children of Valley spent Sunday here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman.

Miss Pearl Leininger of Massillon spent a few days here with her parents.

Misses Hazel and Winifred Holwick were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace in Alliance.

Miss Elizabeth Yaeger, who graduated from the Youngstown City hospital in May and has since taken special training for overseas service, is spending a few weeks with her mother, previous to going abroad.

Mrs. Anna Good of Franklin Square is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bush and sons Roland and Herbert of Chestnut Valley visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Coy the past week.

Miss Viola Zimmerman spent a week with her niece, Mrs. John Carroll, of Leetonia.

Mrs. Lydia Bush of Greenford is spending two weeks with local relatives.

Master Herman Strawn of Damascus spent the past week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Callahan and children have moved to Salem. The house vacated by them will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheen.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Coy attended the funeral of his cousin, Simon Coy, in Salem, Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Herbert Arner and little daughter, Phyllis Marguerite of Youngstown spent the week end with local relatives.

Miss Anna Held of Alliance spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reese and daughter Roberta of Salem were Sunday guests of Mrs. Ann Reese.

Wm. and Lucy Howells spent Sunday with Misses Chris and Grace Snedden of Washingtonville.

Roland Weingart, Homer Reese, Lester Dunn Crutchley and Peter Wells resumed work in the Salem schools Monday after spending their vacation on farms in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Halvstadt of Leetonia were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holland.

Lawrence and Miss Lois Stanley of Sebring were callers in the village Monday evening.

Mrs. George Crutchley and Homer Dunn spent Wednesday in Youngstown with their sister, Mrs. George Carlisle.

Mrs. Mary Heinemann of Salem visited her daughter, Mrs. Carl Dunn, Friday.

Miss Margaret Converse who visited a few days with Misses Hazel and Winifred Holwick, returned home to Cleveland, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch and daughter Doris and Mrs. Ann Reese, who visited friends in Cleveland the past week, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch and daughter Doris and Mrs. Ann Reese, who visited friends in Cleveland the past week, returned home Monday.

This community can be numbered among the first in the observance of gasless Sundays.

Oscar Grimm has returned home after spending a week with friends in Calla.

John Allison has resumed work at the Callahan shaft after a ten days' lay off on account of an accident.

J. G. Smith and family of Salem were Sunday guests here of J. C. Smith and family.

Miss Mary Fitzsimmons of Washingtonville, who has the honor of receiving appointment as a member of Columbiana county board of school examiners, and the first woman called to the office, has many friends in this community who are highly pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. Marius Sullot and children of Wilksburg are here spending their vacation with Eugene Sullot and family.

The official notice of the death in France of Arthur J. Bye of Damascus, aged 22 years, came a great shock to his wife, formerly Miss Alice Barber, a former resident of this village. His death was caused by a neck wound which severed the jugular vein and occurred July 28. He was a member of the Bainbridge Division, Co. K, 16th Infantry, and received his training at Camp Perry and Camp Mills and was one of the first Americans who went overseas. His wife and infant daughter, Arthene survive.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jessup and daughter of Salem visited relatives here Sunday.

Joseph, son of Jacob Lippitt, who was in the Salem hospital the past seven weeks, was brought home Tuesday and is recovering from the effects of a fractured limb, caused by a kick from a horse.

DAMASCUS

Sept. 11—Damascus high school opened Monday morning, with R. L. Drub, superintendent, Mr. Blue as principal and Grace Richards, Miss Aber and Miss Weaver as teachers.

About 20 letters from soldiers in France were received here Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bennett and Lee Cobbs and sister, Anna, were at Camp Sherman Sunday.

Mrs. Leonard Winder has a bunch of Niagara grapes which weigh 1 pound and 1 ounce, grown on a vine at her home.

Homer Israel of Milwaukee and Misses Dorothy and Vivian Doan of Alliance spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Israel.

Mrs. Howard Holloway of Columbus is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Green.

Washingtonville

Ralph Warner has enlisted in the U. S. service and will learn vulcanizing at Akron, beginning next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer.

Miss Amanda Bilger and brother Frank were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hawn of Sebring.

Jack Fieldhouse will vacate the Stouffer property in Union street and move into the Mrs. Lydia Frederick property near Stop 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Senevel of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis.

Miss Lena Barrow is employed by the W. H. Mullins Co. in Salem.

Wm. Pittman began work in Salem on Monday.

Members of the Davis family from here attended the Davis reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Davis in Salem on Saturday.

M. F. O'Neill of Martin's Ferry spent Sunday here with his family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culler.

Allen Sterling was called for by U. S. service and left for Camp Sherman last Thursday.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor is reported very low. Chas. Weikart and family spent last Sunday with his brother, W. C. Weikart, and family in Leetonia.

Mrs. Henry King, Mrs. Walter Poulson and Miss Lucille Davis of New Castle spent Sunday with their parents, Chas. DeJane and wife.

Miss Elizabeth Woods of Alliance was among relatives here this week.

Mrs. Daniel Heister returned home Sunday from Canal Dover where she had been visiting.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Richardson entertained at a pleasant gathering Friday evening in their home when they received members of the Christian Endeavor. Business session was first in order after which the social hours were pleasantly spent with music. Dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting next month will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph Warner.

C. H. Weikart made a business trip to East Liverpool Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weikart and Arthur Johnson and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Weikart in East Liverpool.

Miss Carrie Bertolotto of Cleveland is spending her vacation here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bertolotto.

Mr. John Broadbent of Gary, Ind., visited here last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Falloon.

Mrs. Kathryn Roller and Mrs. Harley Roller of Canton were Saturday dinner guests of Mrs. Charles DeJane.

Grandmother Herbert of Greenford, formerly of this village, passed away at her home there last week, death being due to infirmities. She is survived by her son, J. C. Herbert, and one grand-daughter, Nellie.

Nice home-grown peaches are in the market this week at $2.50 per bushel.

Master Dick DeJane returned to New Castle Sunday and will remain there for the winter term of school.

Sunday was almost an autoless day, very few autos being on the road.

The school house is getting its annual cleaning, getting ready for the fall term of school which begins next Monday.

J. N. Paisley, Miss Janet Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Paisley in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith of Mansfield spent the week end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sue Rohrer. Her children, who spent the past six weeks here, returned home with them Monday.

Services will be held next Sunday at the Lutheran church. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller are spending this week at the home of Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Freed in Youngstown.

Notices are out for applications for a new lady clerk at the Cooperative store. One of the former clerks expects to leave soon to take up a busi-ness course.

Miss Fern Atkinson is attending business college in Salem.

Miss Alma Metz of Leetonia was a Sunday guest of her cousin, Miss Emma Culler.

Mrs. Wm. Bernosky of Dayton is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Leon Vignot. Miss Isabel Tourdot will return and make her home with them this winter.

Some of the farmers in this vicinity have made contracts with Youngstown dairymen for their supply of milk and products from the farm. This causes inconvenience for home people.

Harold Tetlow and family of Youngstown spent several days here the past week with relatives.

Charles Tetlow of Akron spent Tuesday here at the home of his mother.

Mrs. T. C. Slack of Pittsburgh visited Friday at the home of her sister, Mrs. David Weikart.

PATMOS

Sept. 12—Bunker H. Hill W. C. T. U. and W. F. M. S. last week Wednesday in joint all-day session at the home of Mrs. Bessie Campbell.

Some members were present that only a literary program was given after the devotionals, all business being postponed till a later date. A called meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held a few days later for the purpose of electing officers. The following were elected: President, Mrs. W. L. Middleton; vice president, Mrs. Lola Eyster; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Flora Kegg; recording secretary, Mrs. Mabel Venable; treasurer, Mrs. Zella Maris. The W. C. T. U. will meet again the first Wednesday in October with Mrs. Zella Maris.

Some members of Bunker Hill W. C. T. U. attended the W. C. T. U. convention in Youngstown Wednesday and Thursday.

Recent rains have broken the dry spell but too late to do crops much good.

The recent ruling of the federal fuel administration in regard to Sunday use of automobiles has made Sunday a quiet day here.

Rev. Lloyd preached his farewell sermon at Bunker Hill Sunday before going to conference.

School opened Monday morning.

ISLAND

Sept. 11—Mr. and Mrs. Eno Zeigler of Maryland, former residents of this locality, and their daughter Edna and family of Kansas are spending several weeks among friends here.

After a week's illness Miss Mary Alice Nold passed away on Sunday, aged 55 years, at the home of her brother, Wm. Nold, where she spent her entire life. Deceased was the only daughter of Henry Nold who preceded here in death some years ago. She is survived by her mother and one brother. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon in charge of Rev. Rohrbach of North Lima. Interment in the Midway cemetery.

All roads led to the Canfield fair today.

Mrs. Susan Blosser, who has been quite poorly for some time in the home of H. N. Detwiler, is gradually growing better.

Henry, Lizzie and Mary Riehl visited Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Knopp, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frey of Chambersburg, Pa., who spent some time here with friends and relatives, returned their journey Tuesday to Columbus, Ohio, and on west.

Elzie Feicht and family spent Saturday evening in Columbiana.

C. S. Lesher and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Lesher spent Sunday with Mrs. Lesher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Calvin, at Locust Grove.

Sunday dinner guests of Harvey Horst and family were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Witmer, J. E. Lehman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Landis and Mr. and Mrs. Mart Horst.

Pennschoff and lady friend were Columbiana callers Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman called on his parents in Clarksburg Friday evening.

Mrs. Adam Wenger and Mrs. E. J. Longenecker are slowly recovering from their illness.

Mrs. Nellie Reichard, who has charge of the employees at the Berg pretzel factory in Leetonia, moved to that town last week where her daughter Esther attends school.

Several trains of 95 army trucks plied their tents on Amos Detrow's farm where they camped Saturday night, and another train made that place their headquarters Sunday night.

The following called on Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Martin Sunday to see their newly born son, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lehman, Ira Horst and family, Mrs. Salome Weaver and daughter Ida, Mr. and Mrs. John Frey, Mrs. Bertha Lehman and daughter Mollie, Mrs. Pannle Lehman, Mrs. S. D. Culp, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culp, Norman Lehman and Isiah Riehl.

Fred Brudner and family were in Salem Tuesday morning to see his brother Ernest enroute for Camp Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lehman and daughter Alice, Orie Smith and wife and little daughter of Columbiana were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Good.

Saturday evening while riding his bicycle near Columbiana Clarence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rohrer, of that place was overtaken and struck by an automobile driven by Tracy Culp. He was thrown to the side of the road and sustained a fractured skull, severe cuts and bruises. He is still lying in an unconscious condition. It is presumed that as a machine and just driven around the corner and struck by the bicycle as he was riding without a light.

Much wheat is being sown this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Cole and son, Irvin, Jr., of Adora, Pa., attended the Chamberaker reunion held in A. W. Harold's grove Saturday and also spent several days with his sister, Mrs. H. H. Calvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Landis of Wooster were over Sunday visitors with relatives here.

Amos, Joseph, Stella and Hannah Wenger, Enos, Ezra and Ida Witmer were entertained Sunday in the home of J. J. Witmer.

E. S. Knopp and D. R. Lehman recently shipped a lot of peaches to parties in Wayne county.

Some corn is being cut while others are busy taking care of their cane crop, having it made into sorghum, which will help out during the sugar shortage.

Adam Wenger had his silo filled Saturday and Monday.

Blosser Brothers are busy making cider and applebutter while Alfred Rhodes is operating his sorghum factory full time.

Miss Mary Knopp of Wadsworth was an over Sunday visitor in her home here.

Harry Showalter was recently called to Dayton, Virginia, by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Webster Rhodes, who has typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Mart Horst of Orville were over Sunday visitors here.

HICKORY

Sept. 11—Mrs. Mollie McGee and Mrs. Norman Butler spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Wm. Venable in Patmos.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kenreigh and daughters Edna and Mary visited at Noah Cramer's Sunday.

Miss Helen Douth of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Thos. Douth and wife.

Jefferson Schacht and sister Lizzie of Salem spent Sunday at their farm.

Donald Elton of Salem returned home Saturday after spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Harvey McDonald.

Miss Mary Oesch and Harold Riley are attending business college in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McDonald spent Friday evening at Chas. Bowman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keets spent Friday in Salem.

Mrs. Chas. Sisco and Miss Bessie Layman were in Salem Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Paxson and sons Robert and Charles Paxson of Salem spent Saturday afternoon at Chester Paxson's.

NORTH LIMA

Sept. 12—The North Lima public schools will open next Monday morning at 9 o'clock, eastern standard time. This time will be continued without change throughout the term. Pupils desiring to exchange their old books as part payment for new ones should bring them on the opening day of school.

Good Hope Lutheran church will celebrate Holy Communion next Sunday afternoon. On Monday evening the Rochester Conference will open its fall session here with communion service and sermon by the Rev. F. W. Kohler, president of the conference and superintendent of the home for epileptics in Rochester, Pa. There will be sessions Tuesday morning, afternoon and evening. Tuesday evening the Burns left for Camp Sherman.

Earl Burns left for Camp Sherman Tuesday with Rev. Ambrose Hering, superintendent of the Inner Mission work at Pittsburgh and a camp pastor addressing the conference. On Wednesday the Woman's Missionary Society will hold its annual convention. In the evening Mr. Hiram Sipes a teacher who labored among the Hindus of India, will tell of his experiences and the work of foreign missions. All are invited to these meetings. On Sunday, Sept. 22, the congregation will have its annual harvest home festival.

Earl Burns left for Camp Sherman last Friday with a number of draftees from Kenton. Mr. Burns is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Burns to enter the service. His brother Arthur has been in France some time.

Mr. Oliver Weaver expects to enter Mt. Union college this fall to take a course in mechanical engineering. He will enlist with the Students' Reserve Corps, thus taking educational training in school during the winter and training in camp during the summer.

Wetter is a graduate of the North Lima high school with the class of 1915.

Winners for this district in the war game contest which closed with a county round-up meeting last Thursday at Canfield, were Cecil Hill, Wilbur Love, Evelyn Weaver, Ada Blosser and Gary Sprinkel. A number from here attended the exercises which were a part of the community day program of the teachers' institute.

Special harvest home services were held Sunday morning and evening in the North Lima church and auditorium was beautifully decorated with flowers and fruits. Rev. R. B. Yocum was a guest at the parsonage.

H. L. Burns and family will move into the Mowen homestead this fall. The present occupant, Miss Ida Gehl, will spend some time with her relatives at Winesburg, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reesler of Berlin Center were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Chambers last week.

Jacob Elser, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

Assurance is given that the North Lima-Columbiana road will be completed and ready for travel before winter. A contractor from Youngstown has been given the contract to do the macadamizing.

Members of the Beard family enjoyed a reunion Saturday in Southern park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rotzel and son Richard and Mrs. W. E. Glenn of Youngstown spent Sunday with J. E. Glenn and family.

BERLIN CENTER

Sept. 11—A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kaley.

Ray Beckman and family spent Sunday with Mrs. John Keeler of Shell-town.

Miss Mildred Prather of Salem is visiting her sister, Mrs. Earl Beardsley.

A son came last Monday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Cronick and Tuesday evening a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Florence.

Mrs. Robert Weaver and Mrs. Emma Dushman were Alliance visitors last Friday.

Some corn has been cut in this neighborhood, but much of the crop will not mature for a week or more.

Miss Carol Hawkins is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. F. Carson, in Alliance.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tubbs visited her daughter, Mr. T. V. Dodson, in Alliance last Saturday.

Mrs. A. Leyman called on North street friends last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Emery Stallsmith is confined at her bed by sickness. Many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

John Diver, who is a member of the board of county fair managers, has been in Canfield all week helping to make the annual exposition a success.

Many old automobile tires were gathered up in this locality and sent to the Red Cross in Youngstown which will turn them into money for use in its many laudable works.

Miss Elma Hawkins is assisting in the care of Mrs. Emery Stallsmith.

Miss Elma Hawkins spent last Sunday afternoon with Miss Blanche Flegel on North street.

Mrs. Arthur Shisler is among the sick.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Sept. 11—The funeral of Arthur Lorenz, infant son of Arthur and Anna Schaefer, whose death occurred Sept. 1, at Amos, was held at 2 P. M.

The child was consecrated to God in holy baptism by Rev. Reiff August 31.

Rev. Dick has been returned to this circuit.

Rev. Reiff is in Cleveland attending the annual conference of the Synod.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McMahon of Ohl's Crossing recently called on Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Rourke.

William G. Knight is digging a well.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ripple and daughter Violet of Youngstown were on their way to the home of their mother, Mrs. Marietta Pennell.

Mrs. Willis Wenger is visiting her husband, who is now in a camp near Hoboken, N. J.

BOARDMAN

Sept. 12—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chambers have been entertaining friends from Indiana for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stafford of Wooster are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Stafford.

Paul Garver has been suffering with a large boil on the side of his face.

Lucy Hair, Paul Ruckeborn, George John and Norman Agnew made a trip by auto to Cuyahoga county Tuesday. The trip was made in the interest of dairy herds.

To celebrate Mrs. Anna McClurg's birthday, a number of friends were entertained at dinner Wednesday evening.

Miss Lucy Hitchcock, who has been in California for several years, has returned and is visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Elmer Barger is on the sick list.

Mrs. Frank Beardsley of Ashtabula visited Elizabeth and Olive Moody last week.

John Pitts, a soldier in the regular army, stationed on the Mexican border, spent a few days with his parents here.

S. O. Ewing was in Canfield Saturday.

H. C. Heintzelman was in North Lima Saturday evening.

John Cain and family spent Monday evening in New Castle.

R. E. Frederick, Chauncey Miller, Henry Sparrow and Jas. Robinson were in Youngstown Monday.

Alice Swanson of Youngstown called on Edward and Isabella Swanson one day last week.

Holmes Moody of Youngstown is caring for the garden and digging potatoes for his sisters Elizabeth and Olive.

O. R. Phillips, Rev. W. H. Pond, W. Fenton and L. H. Fenton are the registrars for this precinct Thursday.

School opened Monday with about 330 pupils with quite a number yet to report. The teachers are G. M. Barton, principal; Josephine McClevey, domestic science teacher; Ruth Keller and Ruth Engle, high school; Delpha McCreara, eighth grade; Ruth Keen, seventh grade; Gertrude Nelson, sixth grade; Nell Johnston, fifth grade; Esther Heintzelman, fourth; Ruth Duncan, third; Mrs. E. Johnston, second, and Nellie Welch, first.